Mr. Hugh Q. Alexander
Chief Counsel, Senate Rules and Administration Committee
305 Senate Office Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Alexander:

Thank you for your letter of 14 October concerning

[redacted]
[redacted] wrote to us in September 1962 and March 1963. Although [redacted] did not file a formal application with us, he gave us a brief resume of his background and experience and his file was reviewed by appropriate officials to determine the possibilities of a suitable opening for him. These reviews did not disclose a vacancy commensurate with his qualifications and he was advised of the results. However, we shall be glad to reconsider his qualifications in light of our current vacancies and are enclosing a set of application forms which you may wish to forward to him for this purpose.

Your interest in writing to us in [redacted] behalf is appreciated.

Sincerely,

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel
